

STATE OF MISSISSIPPI

JIM HOOD

ATTORNEY GENERAL

Bridgette Wiggins, Director
CONSUMER PROTECTION DIVISION

Dear Consumer,

Thank you for bringing your complaint to our attention. It is our intent to help you reach a prompt resolution of this matter. In order for this office to properly consider your case, it will be necessary for you to follow the directions outlined below. While we may be able to offer advice, we cannot take action to assist you until the following steps have been completed.

1. Write a letter of complaint to the business which sold you the item or performed the service. Ask for specific and reasonable action from the company. Send the letter by certified mail with a return receipt requested.
2. If the business does not respond within ten working days, or if it indicates an unwillingness to work with you, complete the enclosed complaint form and mail it to the address indicated. Enclose copies of your letter to the business and any contracts, bills, receipts, or canceled checks. Remember, send copies, do not send originals. Allow three (3) weeks for a review of your complaint and a response from our office.

While we can sometimes assist with the mediation of a dispute when both parties are willing, we cannot by law act as a lawyer for any one person who has a dispute with another. We strongly urge you to meet with a private attorney to review your dispute to see if it is suitable for litigation. Please note that all civil actions are governed by a statute of limitations. If you fail to file a civil suit prior to the end of the statute of limitations, you could be prevented from pursuing your claim.

Under the Mississippi Consumer Protection Act, the Attorney General is allowed to sue only to prevent unfair and deceptive business practices occurring statewide or affecting large numbers of people. We encourage consumers to send us information about suspected illegal business practices. Often, the more reports we receive, the clearer the practice is revealed. Numerous complaints may reveal a pattern of misconduct, allowing us to take action.

If we cannot assist you, we will refer you, whenever possible, to other more appropriate agencies or organizations which may be of assistance. In any event, we will do everything within our authority to help resolve your problem.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

JIM HOOD, ATTORNEY GENERAL
